Check out the March ALAN Picks!

This month's ALAN Picks features reviews of four books that delve into the vast experiences of girls and women with oppression, power and everyday life. These young adult books include: two fantasy/science fiction books, Bitter by Akwaeke Emezi and Iron Widow by Xiran Jay Zhao; a contemporary verse novel Chlorine Sky by Mahogany L. Browne; and a memoir You Sound Like a White Girl: The Case for Rejecting Assimilation by Julissa Arce.

Macmillan Author Event

Macmillan middle grade author Skye Melki-Wegner will discuss her upcoming series launch THE DEADLANDS: HUNTED on Wednesday, March 15th, at 6 pm ET.

While Skye has been writing stories ever since she could hold a pen, THE DEADLANDS series was inspired by her time working in a museum, where some of her favorite colleagues were dinosaurs. As she looked onto the exhibits, she couldn't help but wonder - what would it be like if they could speak, reason, and dream? And thus, she brought extinct creatures back to life.

In Cretacea, a dangerous and exhilarating world

When: Wednesday, March 15th
Time: 6pm ET.

where predators rule and kingdoms are locked in a war, it's up to our band of misfit dinosaurs to save their kingdoms from a lurking predator and a secret plot that might destroy them all.

Action-packed, exhilarating, and full of heart, this series is best described as Wings of Fire meets Jurassic Park with a splash of Game of Thrones' scheming. Those who attend will receive an advanced copy of the book.
